

Scholarship Application Form

1812 W. Burbank Blvd. Suite 414, Burbank, CA 91506 Tel: 818.465.8425 | mitswebsite.com

- The signed application and all other documents must be in PDF format.
- All documents must be attached and sent in one single email.
- Please send your application to scholarship@mitsemail.com
- Deadline is Nov. 20, 2023, 5 pm, PTS A MITS representative will confirm the receipt of your application.

1.	1. Legal Name:
		Middle	Last
2.	2. Home Address:
	Street
	City State	Zip	Country
3.	3. Telephone: Primary () S	econdary ()
4.	4. Year of birth:(Year only)	Age:
	(Year only)
5.	5. Gender: Female Male Other	Prefer not to say
6.	6. Number of years of study completed:
	Highschool:	Years attended
	College	Years attended
	Other	Year Attended _
7.	7. Describe a particular satisfying public or com last 10 years:	munity service you hav	e done in the
8.	8. Did your mother receive a bachelor's degree	or higher? Yes N	[o 🗌
	Did your father receive a bachelor's degree or	higher? Yes N	lo 🗌

10. List your last two jobs: 1) 2) 11. What's your non-English working language? (e.g., Spanish, Arabic, Mandarin, etc.) 12. How did you learn about MITS Scholarship? 13. Have you taken an interpreting course before? Yes No If yes, which one? 14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. Signature: Date:	9.	Place of current employment (if any):
11. What's your non-English working language? (e.g., Spanish, Arabic, Mandarin, etc.) 12. How did you learn about MITS Scholarship? 13. Have you taken an interpreting course before? Yes No If yes, which one? 14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.	10.	List your last two jobs: 1)
11. What's your non-English working language? (e.g., Spanish, Arabic, Mandarin, etc.) 12. How did you learn about MITS Scholarship? 13. Have you taken an interpreting course before? Yes No If yes, which one? 14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.	,	2)
If yes, which one? If yes, which one? 14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
If yes, which one? 14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No No If not, explain why? If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.	12.	How did you learn about MITS Scholarship?
14. If selected as a MITS Scholar, would you apply to be certified within a year of completing the forty hours of training? Yes No No If not, explain why? If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.	13.	Have you taken an interpreting course before? Yes \(\bigcap\) No \(\bigcap\)
If not, explain why? 15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.]	If yes, which one?
15. Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself: Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I,
Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top. 16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.]	If not, explain why?
16. An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions: 1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I,	15.	Please provide a 200-300-word biography of yourself:
1. Why are you interested in medical interpreting? 2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I,		Your bio must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top.
2. What do you want to accomplish in your career? 3. Why do you deserve this scholarship? The essay must be typed on a separate paper with your name at the top of each page. Please number each page. I, have read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage. I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.	16.	An English essay of 500-700 words that answers the following three (3) questions:
I,		2. What do you want to accomplish in your career?
read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage . I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
read and understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the Scholarship description webpage . I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical interpreting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I attest that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Signature: Date:	read an Scholar interpre attest th	d understand the MITS Scholarship terms and conditions as explained on the rship description webpage . I confirm that I plan to pursue a career in the medical ting field. I affirm that all of this application, including my essay, is my own work. I at the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge
	Signatu	re: Date: